Re: U.S. v. Martinez, Case #13-CR-699

Your Honor,

I am the subject of this Motion for Compassionate Release, and I thought it would be appropriate to provide a first-hand prospective on my merits to re-enter the community. First and foremost, I have sincere remorse for my crime, and empathy for the victims. I have participated and successfully completed the RDAP, Drug Education Program, as well as several other Educational, Vocational, and Life Skills program classes. I understand how my actions affected others, and as a result, when I am released, will give back to the community. My skills acquired from programming include Life Coach, HVAC Electrical, Psychology, and Parenting.

I have 2 children, a 15 year old son, and an 11 year old daughter, that I would re-unite with, and lead, as a father, by example, how to be a lawful and productive member of the community.

In preparation, over the 6 years that I have been incarcerated, I have completed and learned a vast amount from 30 rehabilitative program classes. As a result, I have successfully changed, and can assure you, that I am ready and able to rejoin the community without recidivism, and that I pose no risk to the community. I am, however, at high-risk, here at Danbury FCI, of contracting COVID-19, as has been documented.

I truly hope you have faith in me, not just my words, and consider releasing me, under whatever conditions are appropriate for the Court and Probation.

Thank you,
Respectfully,

Kelvin Martinez
